To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans, and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

WE regret to learn that Malaney and Chappel, the two men scalded by the accidental escape of steam from the supply pipe of the Engine of the River Queen, on Monday, are in a critical condition and little hopes are entertained of their recovery.

REMOVED.—Mr. G. B. Smith has removed his hat, cap, and fur store to Mr. Baker's store, Monitor Block, Lake St., where he will be pleased to see his old friends and customers.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Mr. Marshall Mason has sold three acres of land of North High Street to Mr. John A. Bedard for $1800.

Mr. J. W. Hobart has sold to the Methodist Society one-third of an acre of land on the south side of Congress street, the second lot above High Street, as a lot for a new parsonage. The price paid was $550.

George McGowan has bought a lot on land on North High Street for $7.00.

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.—The horse attached to the Welden House baggage wagon, while standing in front of the residence of Mr. Samuel Williams on Bank Street, last night, became frightened and had a "gay old run," as the boys say. He had not proceeded far before he ran against a tree which cleared him of the wagon, when he ran down Bank Street to Main, and turned northward. He fell in front of Smith and Foster's store, but quickly got on to his feet again and went up Main Street with greater speed than before, if possible, as far as the residence of Hon. Lawrence Brainerd whose premises he examined. After which, he proceeded down Main Street and ran into the livery stable of the Messrs. Fullers. There was no damage done aside from that done to the wagon which looked a "little the worse for wear."

SOME miserable scamp went into the barn of Russell Parsons of Bennington a few nights since, and leading therefrom a valuable carriage horse, inflicted upon the breast and neck of the poor dumb beast twenty-eight gashes with a knife and then left the animal to die.

PATRIOTIC.—John Bagley and six sons, of Craftsbury, and vicinity, served in the late war—two of them four years and five of them three years, making twenty-three years in all. This is a remarkable case of patriotism.

ALEX. FISHER'S Imported Ayrshire cow dropped a fine heifer calf on the 14th inst.

RUTLAND & WOODSTOCK RAILROAD. The subscribers to the stock of the Rutland and Woodstock Railroad, agreeable to previous notice, met Monday evening at the Bardwell House, and proceeded to the organization of the company by the election of the following gentlemen as Directors:

John Cain, Rutland.
John B. Page, Rutland.
Charles Sheldon, Rutland.
Charles Clement, Rutland.
J. W. Cramton, Rutland.
Rockwood Barrett, Rutland.
L. G. Kingsley, Rutland.
Peter T. Washburn, Woodstock.
Daniel W. Taylor, Sherburne.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors John Cain was elected President, and Rockwood Barrett Clerk and Treasurer.

The Bennington Bank Robbery.

The Banner contains the following additional particulars of the recent robbery of the First National Bank of that village:

"In the meantime the Teller was dispatched to Lillie's Safe Works, Troy, where the safe was manufactured, to bring up an expert to open the lock; but before his arrival the next morning, Mr. Cobb had gained an entrance to the outer apartment of the safe, only to find that it had been completely cleaned of all its contents of value save a quantity of Town bonds, which the burglars knew of course to be valueless to them, and a few stamps, and also found the dial of the inner compartment gone, which convinced him, and the officers of the Bank, that that too had been cleaned of its contents. In this inner apartment were the great bulk of bonds on deposit for safe keeping by the holders—amounting probably to fully $10,000, and our village was filled with pale and anxious countenances, all dreading the moment when the expert should gain an entrance into the safe, and find everything swept away. Many had their all deposited, and the feeling which pervaded the community can be easily imagined, especially when the officers of the bank gave it as their opinion from the first that all had been taken. They were drawn to this belief from the fact that the inner lock was found in precisely the same condition as the outer one, &c. All this time the Troy expert, Mr. Sterling, was hard at work endeavoring to strike the combination, but at the end of two or three hours gave it up as a hopeless task, and taking up the hammer and chisel, he shortly made his way in, when the joyful discovery was made that the inner contents were all safe, the burglars having failed entirely in gaining an entrance thereto, and had probably taken away the dial to perplex the officers of the bank, and so gain time in escaping. A vast burden seemed at once to be rolled off the hearts of the community, and where before only pale, anxious countenances were to be met, there were now smiles and mutual congratulations that the calamity—which if the worst had been realized, would have swept away fully $100,000 of the surplus funds of Bennington—had been in a very great degree averted.

But as it is the loss is by no means a small one, reaching fully $25,000, and the losers have the fullest sympathy of the whole community.

We subjoin a list of the losses, as furnished us by the cashier, Mr. Cobb:

L. L. Chandler, Bonds	$4,050
Enos Adams, "	4,000
E. A. Cobb, "	2,900
Mrs. M. P. Cobb, " 5-20s of '67	1,100
Wm. Towsey, " do	500
Jane Sedman, " Nos 7,013, 7,044	200,89,50
S. L. Godfrey, " "	200
Edward Kinsley, " No. 211, 121	100
E. Paige, " "	50
L. P. Norton, cash,	300
E. O. Cole, "	195
Ladies Cong. Church Aid Society, "	83 70
Bank loss between	$9,000 and $10,000

The burglars managed the affair in a shrewd, sharp manner, leaving not the slightest clue for the detectives, one of whom was up from Troy on Monday. They left no litter or confusion of any kind, not even a stamp or shingle on the floor. Two or three parties passing the bank at half-past ten to eleven o'clock, Saturday night, noticed a light, but supposed it was Mr. Cobb, who is very often there writing on his books, and attending to other business, at this late hour, even. There can be no doubt the burglars were then at work, which shows that they had been "working up" the job, and calculating their chances, knowing that it would be regarded as nothing strange to see a light there as late as eleven or twelve o'clock.

Subscription papers are being circulated among the citizens and townspeople for the purpose of making up to Mr. Cobb and Miss Sedman the amount of their loss; and we are glad to say they are being generously and liberally signed.

No value whatever has been gained to the burglars, or even in what direction they went after leaving the bank. Everything connected in the affair is wrapped in mystery, though all due efforts will be made to secure their detection.

Concerning Mr. Adams' bonds, it may be added, they were left at the bank as collateral security, and it has not yet been settled whether Mr. Adams or the bank is the loser.

Sterling, the Troy expert, says the ones who committed the bank burglary must have been in possession of the lock combination, else they could never have got in. How they got in is the question. Of course it was by bringing into play the keenest kind of rascality.

Vermont Historical Society

SPECIAL MEETING AT RUTLAND AUG. 20 AND 21 1868.

PROGRAMME

Thursday afternoon, 3 o'clock P. M.

The opening session will be held at the vestry of the Congregational church at 3 o'clock P. M., when a welcome will be made in behalf of the citizens of Rutland, which will be responded to by the Rev. Pliny H. White, President of the Society. Hon. Hiland Hall of Bennington will then read an historical paper.

Thursday evening, 7 1/2 o'clock.—Papers will be read as follows:

"The Career of the Notorious Smuggling Boat Black Snake during the Embargo of 1808," by Luther Loomis Datchler of St. Albans.

"Rutland Forts" by Henry Hall of Rutland.

Friday Morning, 10 1/2 o'clock.—"Fenianism" by Gen. John Wallcott Phelps of Brattleboro.

"Biographical Sketch of Judge Theophilus Harrington of Clarendon," by Rev. Pliny H. White of Coventry.

Friday afternoon.—"Life and Services of Hon. Thaddeus Stevens," by Henry Clark of Rutland.

"The True Objects of the Vermont Historical Society," by Hon. Hampden Cutts of Brattleboro.

Papers are also expected from Rev. Dr. Shelton of Carthage Landing, N. Y.; Rev. J. W. Carhart, D. D. of Mechanicsville N. Y., and Albert D. Hagar, of Proctorsville.

Meetings of the Society will be held each day for the transaction of business, the reception of donations and the admission of members, after the close of the public exercises.

If other communications which have been solicited are in readiness, this programme may be somewhat modified; in which case due notice will be given by the president of the society.

By the order of the Managers.

RUTLAND, AUG 17, 1868.

Persons from a distance attending this meeting of the Vermont Historical Society will be furnished with free return tickets on application to the recording secretary.

That Resolution.

The following is the resolution to which Mr. Atkins alluded in his speech before the Democratic Convention at Fairfield, on Thursday, and for voting against which he highly complimented Mr. Atwood, at the same time urging the Democrats of Franklin County to give him their most cordial support. The resolution, it will be remembered, was introduced in the Senate by Mr. Hende, of Lamoille County:

Resolved.—By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Vermont.—That in the unhappy conflict of opinion between Congress and the Executive Department of the National Government in relation to the policy to be pursued in the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion, we heartily endorse the action of Congress, and believe that its measures need only to be faithfully carried out by the executive to secure an early and satisfactory restoration of the country to quietness and prosperity on the broad basis of equality and constitutional liberty;

Which was read and adopted on the part of the Senate.

The yeas and nays having been demanded by Mr. Baker, they were taken and are as follows:

Those Senators who voted in the affirmative were Messrs.

Allen,	Dewey,	Leonard,
Anderson,	Dyer,	Martin,
Baker,	Goodhue,	Oreutt,
Barstow,	Hard,	Proot,
Brown,	Hendee,	Rout,
Bullard,	Henry,	Samborn,
Burt,	Hill,	Simpson,
Canfield,	Kellogg,	Smith,
Clapp,	Lane,	Walker.—28.
Dale,

"The Senator who voted in the negative is Mr. Atwood."

News and Miscellaneous Items.

Turbans were much worn in London during the great heat.

Topley, the pedestrian, walked, on Saturday last, eight miles in one hour and four minutes.

Mrs. Lincoln is at Bedford Springs, Pa., living in strict seclusion.

Mr. Burlingame has gone to pay a visit to his father, who lives twenty miles west of Chicago.

An encouraging experiment has recently been made in Cincinnati, to burn coal oil instead of wood in the fire engines of the city.

Ladies who affect the indignant when they are kissed, and desire the treasure to be put back immediately, should be implicitly obeyed.

Long Branch has twenty hotels, five miles of bathing shore, twenty-five miles of drives, five thousand guests, and ten thousand are expected.

Men confess everything but their own besetting sins. They steer quite clear of these. Who ever heard a man say: "Oh, Lord! I am as proud as Lucifer, humble me;" or "O Lord! I am so mean and stingy that 'tis only with great pain that I can unclothe my fist. Make me generous."

Mrs. Gaines' property is estimated at $5,000,000 in gold. Although the United States Supreme Court has decided in her favor, she has recovered of this vast estate but $15,000, consisting of a portion of the estate of John Slidell, which was surrendered to her because it had been confiscated.

A New York correspondent of the Chicago Journal, speaking of Brick Pomeroy's new paper, says:—"Judging from his looks, 'Brick' is about thirty-seven years of age. Singular as it may seem, he neither smokes, chews, or swears. He observed yesterday that there was not an attaché in the Printing office of the La Crosse Democrat, from foreman down to devil, who uses tobacco or swears."

Referring to the rumor that Brick Pomeroy had offered $2,000,000 for the stock and good will of the Herald establishment, the La Crosse Democrat says:—"Mr. Pomeroy has done no such thing! In the first place Mr. Pomeroy is not fool enough to offer any such sum for the Herald; and in the second place Mr. Bennett would not be likely to reject an offer of half that sum for his newspaper."

Mr. Hoey's place at Long Branch, which is but little over a quarter of a mile from the Stetson House, contains two hundred and seventy-three acres, and the grounds are as finely kept as any in the country. It is called Holly-wood. Mr. Wallace's place has about sixty acres, and bears the unpretending name of "The Hut," given to it by his father, who bought it about twelve years ago. It is not far from the Stetson House.

When the Imperial family returns to the Tuilleries, court life there will be much less brilliant than in former years. The Emperor Napoleon is determined to cut down the expenses of his household, which, for twelve years past, have annually exceeded, by at least fifteen millions francs, the sum originally appropriated for that purpose. The Court now owes many millions of francs to all the merchants who furnish goods to it.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DELIBERATE, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Do you have indigestion, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or floccy, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise on the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspnea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, mooping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lastre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become those discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiotcy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Burette. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT DUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Burette, established upwards of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 509 New York, and 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

None are genuine unless done up in steel engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed

H. T. HELMBOLD.
